Roberts attends Wayne State certification program NACCTFO professional certification program for County Treasurers, Tax Collectors, and Finance Officers

Will Roberts, Tax Collector of Volusia County, Florida recently attended the Annual Meeting of the National Association of County Collectors, Treasurers and Finance Officers (NACCTFO) in Tampa, Florida on July 7 - 10, 2024. The meeting includes continuing education courses in public administration and management, offered by the Graduate Program in Public Administration and the Office of Executive and Professional Development at Wayne State University.

“Collectors, treasurers, finance officers and their staff must keep up to date on best practices of efficiently managing county government” said Brady Baybeck, Director of Graduate Programs in Public Administration at Wayne State. “Wayne State University’s certification program connects participants with our nationally-recognized faculty. It also gives participants an opportunity to share best practices with peers from across the U.S.”

Session topics included artificial intelligence, cybersecurity, tax collection, budgeting, and managing human resources effectively.

“By participating in the program, Roberts demonstrated his commitment to his county,” Professor Baybeck said.

Wayne State University is the premier urban research university in Michigan, located in the heart of Detroit.
