Roberts attends Wayne State certification program

NACCTFO professional certification program for county treasurers, tax collectors, and finance officers

Will Roberts, Tax Collector of Volusia County, FL recently attended the annual meeting of the National Association of County Collectors, Treasurers and Finance Officers (NACCTFO) in Tampa, Florida on July 19th and 20th, 2021. The meeting includes continuing education courses in policy and management offered by the Graduate Program in Public Administration and the Office of Executive and Professional Development at Wayne State University.

“Collectors, treasurers, and finance officers perform crucial roles for their counties, and continuing to learn is imperative if they are to serve their customers effectively and efficiently” said Kyu-Nahm Jun, Director of the Public Administration at Wayne State. “Wayne State University’s certification program connects participants with our nationally-recognized faculty. It also gives participants an opportunity to share information with their peers and to learn from them.”

Session topics included public partnerships, innovation, and strategic planning.

“By participating in the program, Roberts demonstrated his commitment to his county,” Professor Jun said.

Wayne State University is the premier urban research university in Michigan, located in the heart of Detroit.
